

PRODUCTS AND SERVICES OVERVIEW

Leading Distributor of Industrial Supplies

Welcome to our first edition of the Trans-Tasman We Are Applied™!

CONTENTS

Founded in 1923, Applied has become one of the largest global Industrial Distributors in the world. Therefore, we want to give everyone an overview of our capabilities - including the comprehensive range of products and services we have at our disposal to Keep Industry Running.

With 580 branches, 12 Distribution Centres and over 6200 employees worldwide, our specialised expertise and know-how is bridging today's challenges with tomorrow's opportunities. We want you to know that as your operational requirements become more demanding and testing in today's dynamic business environment - you can rely on Applied, our trusted brands, expertise and support to help you meet your challenges.

It is important to note that the value Applied provides takes many forms - from inventory optimisation that reduces your maintenance costs, to increased production and training. This, in conjunction with our strong supplier partnerships, ultimately enables us to find and recommend the most ideal solution. You can rely on Applied to constantly strive to keep you up to date with the latest innovative solutions in this fast changing world, as we continue to build upon our core competencies - having comprehensive inventory locally, specialised expertise and excellent customer service.

Looking to the future, Applied's main objective and focus is to increase your productivity and reduce your maintenance costs. Every year Applied generates tens of millions of dollars of documented value-add for our customers. On-going continuous improvement initiatives from rebuild & design, to inventory management and customer specific training, allows Applied to offer a host of specialised value-adding services. Like our products, you can trust that our services are backed by our specialists, with years of knowledge and industrial experience in critical applications such as gearboxes, motors, pumps, fans.

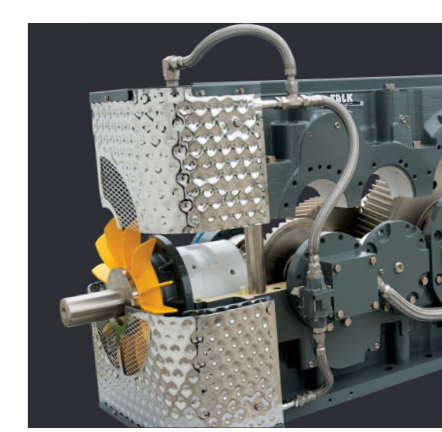

We look forward to continuing to expand our innovative solutions for the Industrial Internet of Things (IIoT) - engaging our Supply Partners in delivering smart products and systems that improve predictive and preventive maintenance, enable remote machine monitoring, and provide more automated and connected organisations.

We aspire to be part of your journey, and look forward to utilising all our resources and capabilities to help you, our valued customer, grow sustainably.
